

1 Title

The two most important proteins in breast cancer are B-lymphocytes and HER2, which are known to play a critical role in breast cancer development, and are involved in tumor survival.

2 Author

authors: Rania Ranice, Ranique Ranna, Raphaela Raquel, Raquela Rasia, Rasla Raven, Ray Raychel

hope.com/content/1/7/?eid=http